The Commander of Troops, positioned in front of you, will bring the Honor Guard to Present Arms and salute. Following four ruffles and flourishes, the band will play the national anthems of Columbia and the United States, and a 21 gun salute will be fired simultaneously with the music.

Upon completion of honors, the Commander will give the troops Order Arms, salute and report, "Sir, the Honor Guard is formed".

NOTE

When passing in front of the Colors, you and the inspection party will salute. Salutes will not be rendered when passing to the rear of the Colors.

The Commander of Troops will halt, salute, and report, "Sir, this completes the inspection." You will then escort President Lleras back onto the platform. The Commander of Troops will return to his post in front of the platform and will bring the Honor Guard to Present Arms. He and his staff will salute President Lleras. After bringing the Honor Guard to Order Arms, the Commander will salute you and report, "Sir, this concludes the ceremony."

APPOINTMENT WITH CONGRESSMAN EDWARD J. DERWINSKI

HIS HOLINESS CATHOLICOS KHOREN I

THE WHITE HOUSE

THURSDAY, JUNE 12, 1969

THE PRESIDENT:

At 4:45 p.m. Congressman Edward J. Derwinski, His Holiness Catholicos Khoren I, Mr. George Mardikian, and an Armenian interpreter will be escorted into your office for a brief meeting.

This is a courtesy call and it is estimated that it will be of approximately 10 minutes duration, at the conclusion of which your guests will be escorted out.

NOTE

A White House photographer will be available to take pictures.

No remarks have been prepared or are required.

BACKGROUND

Catholicos Khoren I is the leader of the major Free World branch of the Armenian Orthodox Church, headquartered in Lebanon. As such, he is one of the two top leaders of this Church. His rival for leadership of the Armenian Church is headquartered in Soviet Armenia. Khoren does not recognize his legitimacy, and it can be assumed that Khoren's meeting with you today will help him in that rivalry.

Khoren I called on you in Washington in October 1957.

He is calling on you today at the request of Congressman Derwinski and President Helou of Lebanon.

The Vice President will host a luncheon for him.

He was previously scheduled to call on you in mid-May but was hospitalized in Boston due to exhaustion. You sent him a wire wishing him well.

His Holiness is in this country to visit his churches.

Mr. George Mardikian is Chairman of the National Reception Committee for Khoren's visit.

SUGGESTED TALKING POINTS:

- your concern for the Armenian community in this country and abroad.
- your deep concern about Lebanon and the Near East, emphasizing your interest in the political independence and territorial integrity of Lebanon and in a fair Arab-Israeli settlement.

SPECIAL NOTE:

- Dr. Kissinger is aware this meeting is taking place and sees no harm in it.

List of those accompanying His Holiness Khoren I on his visit to the White House on June 12, 1969.

In the meeting with the President:

Edward J. Derwinski, Congressman

His Holiness Khoren I, Leader of the Free World Branch of the Armenian Orthodox Church

H. Khatchadourian, Archbishop, Prelate of the Armenian Church

George Mardikian, Honorary Chairman of Reception Committee for His Holiness' Visit to the U. S.

Hratch A. Abrahamian, Dr., Armenian National Committee (Interpreter)

William E. Timmons, Deputy Assistant for Congressional Relations.

Not in the meeting with the President:

C. Babigian, Dr., Chairman of Prelacy Council

Leon P. Palian, Armenian National Committee

James Tashjian, Dr., National Chairman, Armenian Section, Republican National Committee

Andranik Varjapetian, Dr.

You will then say a very brief word of welcome to the graduating class and to the families of the students. There are 22 graduates and they will be pre-positioned on the lawn to your left. A single stand-up microphone with lectern will be provided for your use.

Mr. Hoffman will come to the microphone when you have concluded, and you will move to the foot of the steps. As Mr. Hoffman reads the name of each graduate, Mrs. Ulmer will hand you the appropriate Presidential Certificate. You, in turn, will present it to the graduate and congratulate him. You have personally signed these certificates.

NOTE:

There will be press coverage of the presentations.

After the 22 certificates have been presented, it is recommended that you return to the microphone for brief concluding remarks.

There will be dancing in the Grand Hall and champagne for your guests.

ARTHUR WHITTEMORE & JACK LOWE

The team of Whittemore and Lowe has achieved the pinnacle of prestige and popularity in the field of music. The number of great symphony orchestras with which they have played as soloists is one excellent indicator of the high esteem in which they are held. In addition, they have played on numerous radio programs and have pioneered the classics on television. They were the first classic instrumentalists to have their own daily television show. In the recording field, they are among the few classical performers to sell over one million records.

Whittemore and Lowe are the only soloists ever to have premiered two major concertos with the New York Philharmonic in a single concert.

Mr. Whittemore is from Vermillion, South Dakota, and Mr. Lowe is from Denver, Colorado. They met as students at the Eastman School of Music in Rochester, New York. Their astonishing record of re-engagements and average of 68 concerts per season have made them household names.
