MEMORANDUM FOR: FRED MALEK
FROM: CHARLES COLSON

I interviewed Jim Scarce, resume attached, for the labor job at 1701. Bell thinks he would be excellent; I think he's mediocre, but we sure haven't had much success in coming up with anyone else. I am probably prejudiced because I would love a Peter Brennan-type and I can't find one. In view of the urgency of filling this position, perhaps you should look at him to see if I am being overly critical. He didn't have much feel of what needed to be done in the job which also cooled me off a bit.
