MEMORANDUM FOR BOB HALDEMAN

FROM ROSE MARY WOODS

Last Friday night I attended a dinner party at which Howard K. Smith was also present and he was talking about our convention. He thought it would be most interesting to everyone if we had prominent people from different ethnic and other groups make an appearance. In other words to show our people and let the world know that we do have them in our party -- that we are doing something besides trying to appeal to the WASP.

He also suggested that the better ones in this group should be introduced to say a few words and keep the meetings interesting.

Another thought he had -- it is a shame that the President and Vice President both speak on the same night. He supposed there was nothing that could be done about that since the President has to be last and we can't elect a VP nominee before the President is nominated -- but maybe both could be elected one night and the Vice President make his acceptance speech that night and the President the last night.

I have no idea who is in charge of the program for the convention and I am only passing these on for whatever - if any - interest they may be.
